

Resource List

Where you can go for lots more information on protecting the courts

Below are organizations that have performed an excellent job in advocating for fair and impartial courts. Contact them for more information.

Lambda Legal

Fair Courts Project
120 Wall Street, Suite 1500
New York, NY 10005-3904
T 212-809-8585
F 212-809-0055
www.lambdalegal.org

Lambda Legal is a national organization working to achieve full recognition of the civil rights of LGBT people and those with HIV/AIDS through impact litigation, education and public policy.

Brennan Center for Justice

New York University School of Law
161 6th Ave., 12th Floor
New York, NY 10013
T 212-998-6730
F 212-995-4550
www.brennancenter.org

The Brennan Center for Justice at New York University School of Law is a non-partisan public policy and law institute that focuses on fundamental issues of democracy and justice.

The Justice at Stake Campaign

717 D Street, NW, Suite 203
Washington, DC 20004
T 202-588-9700
F 202-588-9485
www.justiceatstake.org

Justice at Stake is a nonpartisan campaign working to keep our courts fair and impartial. Justice at Stake Campaign partners educate the public and work for reforms to keep politics and special interests out of the courtrooms—so judges can do their job protecting our Constitution, our rights and the rule of law.

continued

American Bar Association Standing Committee on Judicial Independence

Service Center
321 North Clark Street
Chicago, IL 60654-7598
T 312-988-5522 or
T 800-285-2221
www.abanet.org/judind/aboutus/home.html

The American Bar Association, America's leading professional organization of lawyers, created this Standing Committee to promote public awareness about the values of an independent, accountable and efficient judiciary and to assist in responding to unwarranted criticism. The Standing Committee has a particular focus on state and local judiciaries including cosponsoring a model plan on how to respond to judicial criticism.

➡ In addition, many state bar associations have committees and other groups dedicated to preserving an independent judiciary.

American Judicature Society Center for Judicial Independence

The Opperman Center at Drake University
2700 University Avenue
Des Moines, Iowa 50311
T 800-626-4089
F 515-279-3090
www.ajs.org

The American Judicature Society works to maintain the independence and integrity of the courts and increase public understanding of the justice system.

Alliance for Justice Judicial Selection Project

11 Dupont Circle NW
2nd Floor
Washington, DC 20036
T 202-822-6070
F 202-822-6068
www.afj.org

The Judicial Selection Project monitors judicial nominations at all levels of the federal judiciary. The Project plays a leading role in encouraging public participation in the selection and confirmation process and raising public awareness about the significant impact the federal judiciary has on all Americans.